Chubb House Counsel

To find the best industry experience, look in-house.

Lawsuits threaten financial security and reputation.

In today's litigious environment, individuals and businesses often face lawsuits that can threaten their financial security or reputation. Chubb's policyholders have access to professional, highly qualified, and specialized legal representation through Chubb's House Counsel, a national provider of quality legal services to Chubb's insureds. With a House Counsel attorney by your side, you can navigate through the complex and often challenging litigation process with confidence and ease.

House Counsel attorneys are employees of a member of the Chubb Group of Insurance Companies.

A history of successful defense

For over 60 years, House Counsel attorneys have defended Chubb's personal and commercial clients in a wide variety of legal matters, from complex casualty and financial lines cases, including products liability, commercial premises liability, construction defect, employment, D&O and E&O matters to personal auto cases. No matter the size or complexity, every case is equally important.

Representation by a House Counsel lawyer will help you:

- Move smoothly through the case with an attorney whose experience focuses on the area of need.
- Get the desired results and save time, energy and money, with an attorney who will rigorously defend your interests.
- Receive quality, cost-effective representation.

Move smoothly through the case

With House Counsel, you have a lawyer who understands the legal process, is a subject-matter expert, and excels at litigation. House Counsel attorneys are there to provide guidance through stressful times, with compassion, expertise, and the highest ethical standards. All attorneys have a fiduciary duty to put their clients' best interest first.

House Counsel will provide an attorney who is a subject-matter specialist.

House Counsel is organized by practice groups:

We will work with you to get the best possible results.

Our attorneys average

20 years' experience.

With Chubb House Counsel, results matter.

That's the reason House Counsel hires only experienced and skilled attorneys to provide legal representation on behalf of Chubb insureds.

- House Counsel attorneys average 20 years in practice and 10 years with House Counsel.
- House Counsel attorneys have extensive trial experience with consistent quality results.
- Many were partners at private firms.
- They have handled over 20,000 cases in the last five-year period, including Casualty, Financial Lines, Subrogation and Third Party Administrator (TPA) cases.

What our clients are saying:

The attorney provided wise counsel at all points in the process. They also vigorously intervened where necessary during the deposition to protect our interests. Both my wife and I felt ourselves to be in safe hands throughout.

“

The firm has handled several cases in the time I have been with my company and continues to perform at the highest professional level.

The attorney was an excellent advocate and helped me understand the process of the case.

“

Very professional firm that attends to every need in a timely manner. Look forward to working with them again.

“

This was a difficult time, but our firm made it the best possible outcome.

97%

of clients surveyed are highly satisfied with the legal representation and service provided by House Counsel firms.

Receive cost-effective representation

House Counsel is a valued-added service to Chubb insureds. No profit is built into House Counsel's expenses and the professional and skilled attorneys provide exemplary legal representation.

- House Counsel lawyers routinely recommend and seek appropriate case resolution.
- House Counsel is focused on quality, efficient and effective representation and not on profit.
 - Costs are over 50% less than panel firms in our Casualty cases.
 - Costs are over 50% less than panel firms on Financial Lines cases.
- Subrogation recoveries for the past year will yield over $40 million dollars in recovered funds at a 13.8% expense.

We'll be there for you, wherever you are.

Chubb House Counsel has a broad nationwide network of in-house firms. This is a significant advantage to clients with wide ranging geographic exposures.

- 17 law offices throughout the United States and one in Canada.
- House Counsel firms have a deep understanding of the state and federal courts, boards, commissions, and agencies in the jurisdictions where they are located and admitted to practice.
