What We Have Paid Lately

- Employee was fired for cause, and when a press conference was held to announce the results of the internal investigation that led to the dismissal, the employee sued for slander. The case went to trial and the jury returned a verdict in excess of $17.5 million.
- An employee was involved in a collision while completing work for the insured public entity. The collision resulted in a fatality to the other driver. Chubb quickly resolved the claim, paying its policy limit of $5 million.
