Film Producers Risk
For more than 40 years, Chubb has been underwriting film productions, staying apace with the new technologies of this changing industry.

Film Producers Risk

From film to video, analog to digital, and SD to HD, we’ve provided protection to film producers over the years for myriad risks and exposures.

In today’s diverse and dynamic environment with ever-evolving exposures, an insurer with an established track record is critical. Choose a carrier that understands film and video production and has an insurance policy that’s not just special effects. Chubb has the depth of expertise to help production companies manage their global risks, with enterprise-wide insurance products supported by outstanding claim and risk engineering services.

Here’s Looking At You, Kid

Chubb’s target appetite for our Film Producers Risk policy is as diverse as the people who make films. It is designed to protect a wide variety of productions, including:

- Feature films
- Television productions
- Commercials
- Documentaries
- Music videos
- Educational films
- Corporate or institutional productions
- Commercial still photographers

Cast Insurance

- Provides protection against additional production costs (production loss) resulting from incapacity of a declared cast member
- Includes loss resulting from absence due to bereavement
- No restrictions for age or overlapping productions
- No exclusion for childhood diseases
- Protection automatically extends through post production
- Limits for the incapacity of any undeclared cast or crew members included

For more than 40 years, Chubb has been underwriting film productions, staying apace with the new technologies of this changing industry.

We’re Not In Kansas Anymore

Chubb’s Film Producers Risk policy is unique in an industry that prides itself on creativity and individuality. With language, structure and terminology that better express the intent of protection and encompass the enlarging spectrum of filmmaking technologies, Chubb’s Film Producers Risk policy responds to the needs of today’s film producers.
Production Media ("Negative and Faulty")
- Insures against production losses caused by loss of or damage to any medium or device as well as the information they contain
- No exclusions for damage caused by x-ray or magnetic fields, change or extremes of temperature, dampness or dryness

In rare cases, one or more cast and/or production media losses may make abandonment of the production necessary. Chubb’s Film Producers Risk policy includes broadened provisions for those circumstances.

Damage to Property ("Extra Expense")
- Insures against production losses caused by actual or potential impairment of the production as a result of damage to property
- Damage to property used in the production as well as other property at shooting, storage or post locations is insured
- Limits for animals included

Other Insured Causes of Production Loss
- Seizure or quarantine of property by governmental or military authority
- Strike or civil protest that interferes with access to or use of a shooting location

Impairment of Computer Services
Chubb’s Film Producers Risk policy provides protection against loss caused by malicious programming, whether the attack is initiated from inside or outside the company.

Property
protected by Chubb’s Film Producers Risk policy includes:
- Props, sets and wardrobe
- Production equipment, including non-owned vehicles, regardless of what type or how used in the production (e.g., mobile equipment, cars, buses, motor homes)
- Office contents, including additional expense coverage
- Money and securities
- Limits for animals
- Limits for library stock

Legal Liability
Chubb’s Film Producers Risk policy provides protection for damage to or loss of use of property in the insured’s care, custody or control, including damage to living quarters of cast and crew.
