ForeFront Portfolio 3.0℠ Employment Practices Liability Insurance

It’s only a matter of when you’ll be sued by an employee.

Employers operate in an increasingly dynamic employment practices liability (EPL) environment. EPL lawsuits alleging retaliation, discrimination, and sexual harassment are some of the most common types of liability lawsuits companies face today.

Moreover, once an EPL charge gains steam, it can be difficult to contain the financial damage. According to the Chubb 2013 Private Company Risk Survey, 22% of private company executives said an employment practices liability lawsuit would cause the most financial damage to their company.

Fortunately, Chubb created ForeFront Portfolio 3.0℠ Employment Practices Liability Insurance, which offers, where permitted, a combination of important EPL insurance and loss prevention services, specifically for private companies like yours.

Why your company needs EPL insurance:

• Any company may be targeted for an EPL lawsuit. Even if your company is innocent, it still must defend itself against a charge of employment practices misconduct, which can be costly.

• An EPL charge can tarnish your company’s image, dampen employee morale, and hurt employee recruiting and retention efforts.

• An EPL insurance policy that includes loss prevention services can help your company reduce its chances of being sued in the first place... and strengthen your company's legal defense in the event it is sued.

• Your company may have general liability, workers’ compensation, umbrella, and directors and officers liability policies, but these policies typically don’t cover common EPL charges, including retaliation, which is the most common charge.

ForeFront Portfolio 3.0 Employment Practices Liability Insurance highlights:

Broad policy provides coverage for EPL claims brought by past, present, and prospective employees and independent contractors.

When Chubb has the duty to defend covered claims, we provide access to law firms and counsel with experience in employment litigation.

100% defense costs coverage is available in most circumstances for covered claims.

Broad definition of “employment practices wrongful act” addresses evolving legal landscape.

Flexible claim reporting provision may help address issues that result from late notice, such as the failure to report administrative charges timely.

The average award over the past seven years for all types of employment-related cases was $631,589, and two-thirds of all awards exceeded $100,000.
