

CHUBB PROMOTES TRIO IN PERSONAL LINES DIVISION

For immediate release – 09 April 2009: Chubb Insurance is pleased to announce three promotions in its personal lines division – Phil Kay as Senior Underwriter on the Signature (ultra high net worth) team, Krina Patel as Senior Technical Underwriter and Hayley Palmer as a Senior Underwriter – with immediate effect.

Krina Patel has been with Chubb for five years, most recently as an underwriter in the personal lines team. In her new role Krina will continue to look after a select panel of brokers in London and Reading and will be a referral point for brokers and other underwriting staff. She will also be involved in various technical underwriting projects within the personal lines division.

Hayley Palmer has been promoted to a Senior Underwriter within the personal lines team. Hayley will also be a key referral point for brokers and underwriting staff. Hayley has extensive experience of dealing with the regional broker panel and has developed her underwriting skills, becoming a strong resource for the team.

Phil Kay has been promoted to Senior Underwriter on the Signature (ultra high net worth) team after working as an underwriter on the New Business team for the past two years. Phil will be focusing on brokers in the South who come under Chubb's Reading branch.

Simon Mobey, Personal Lines Manager at Chubb Insurance, commented: "We are delighted to announce these latest promotions in our personal lines team. Krina, Hayley and Phil will play a vital role in the continued expansion of our market leading high and ultra high net worth services."
