Financial Services Guide

A guide to our relationship with you
The purpose of this FSG is to help you to make an informed decision about whether to use the financial services we can provide to you. It contains information on:

• who we are and how we can be contacted or given instructions;
• the services we offer to you and how they are provided;
• how we and other relevant persons are remunerated;
• our compensation arrangements;
• our commitment to protecting your privacy;
• how complaints are dealt with; and
• other disclosure documents you may also receive.

Other disclosure documents you may also receive
Where required, you will also be given a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) before or at the time you acquire any product as a retail client. The PDS contains information on the benefits and significant characteristics of the product and is designed to assist you in making an informed decision about whether to buy the product or not. It may be more than one document.

How We Provide Our Services
We may provide a dealing service, with or without general advice, in relation to the general insurance products that we distribute.

When we issue our own general insurance products, we act on our own behalf, not yours.

We are not the insurer of all products distributed by us. We may act on behalf of other product issuers in distributing their products (eg life risk products).

If we are acting on behalf of another issuer, this will be stated in the PDS for that product. We do not act on your behalf. If we have a binding authority from them, this means we act on their behalf as if we were them and can bind them by our actions.

In dealing with the relevant product, we will collect information from you to be able to issue it and manage your and our rights and obligations under it. We will also give you factual information about the product to help you decide whether to buy it.

In some cases we may also make a general recommendation or give an opinion about the product which is not based on our consideration of your individual objectives, financial situation or needs. In providing a general advice service, we cannot tell you whether the insurance or an option within it, is appropriate for you specifically. As a result, you need to consider the appropriateness of any information or general advice we give you, having regard to your objectives, financial situation and needs, before acting on it. You need to read the relevant policy documentation (including any PDS) to determine if it is suitable for you.

How You May Provide Instructions To Us
Our products may be issued to you either directly or through an insurance intermediary.

Where we issue our products directly to you, you can provide instructions to us by using our contact details above.

Where an insurance intermediary issues our products to you, you should provide your instructions to us through the insurance intermediary.
Telemarketing Companies
We may authorise a number of telemarketing companies to provide services on our behalf for which they receive remuneration from Chubb.

See below for further details about their remuneration. These services may include an inbound and outbound call centre to assist you in applying for our insurance products and to answer any general queries you may have about our products. The telemarketing companies follow procedures set by us and may also provide you with general advice which has been prepared and authorised by us. In providing these services, the telemarketing companies act on our behalf, not yours. The telemarketing companies may also act on behalf of other licensees. For further details, please contact us.

How We Are Paid For Our Services

Payment for the services we provide
As the issuer of any insurance policy, we will charge you an agreed premium for that product based on a number of factors including your risk profile and circumstances (plus relevant taxes and charges) which we will calculate and provide you with before you buy the product. The premium may be paid annually or in monthly instalments in certain cases.

Remuneration of our staff
All permanent Chubb employees are paid an annual salary. An annual bonus may be available in some circumstances, which can be based on performance against sales targets and other performance criteria.

Chubb permanent employees may also receive other non-monetary benefits such as attendance at business related conferences, study trips, other functions or gift vouchers.

All temporary Chubb employees receive hourly wages or such wages otherwise agreed for a fixed term or contract. Performance-based payments may also be paid in some circumstances.

Telemarketing companies remuneration
All remuneration payable to telemarketing companies will be paid by Chubb or Chubb’s business partners. You will not be asked to make any payment directly to a telemarketing company or in relation to any services provided by them, whether or not you take out an insurance contract through a telemarketing company.

The telemarketing company:
• will receive an amount as partial or complete reimbursement of staff remuneration expenses;
• may receive a fee which is a percentage of the net premium of an insurance policy (which is the total premium payable less GST, Stamp Duty and Fire Services Levy, where applicable) for all insurance policies arranged by the company that are not cancelled in the first 30 calendar days; and
• may also be paid agreed hourly rates or fixed costs to perform the services, such as information technology costs, calling time, sales verification and telecommunication charges.

The remuneration of telemarketing companies is normally paid on a weekly basis.

Remuneration of a telemarketing company’s staff
Depending on the particulars of each telemarketing campaign, a telemarketing company’s employees will receive a salary or a fee which is an hourly rate negotiated with the telemarketing company and may also receive one or more of the following benefits which are based on the employees’ performance against sales targets and other performance criteria:

• soft dollar benefits which can include gift vouchers, meals, entertainment such as tickets to sporting events and gifts such as bottles of wine; and/or;
• weekly monetary bonuses.

These benefits are paid by the telemarketing company and not Chubb.

The identity and remuneration of individual operators should not impact on the service provided or be material to your decision to enter into an insurance contract with Chubb.

Referral to Chubb by third parties
In certain cases, we may have a relationship with a third party who we may pay for referring you to us. We may pay them a referral fee which is a percentage of the net premium of an insurance policy (which is the total premium payable less GST, Stamp Duty and Fire Services Levy, where applicable).

This referral fee is already incorporated into the premium payable by you and the amount can vary, depending on the type of arrangement we have with the third party and the type of insurance product you purchase. The amount we pay them includes a reimbursement of expenses they incur in performing their role, for example marketing, postage, telephone, printing and call centre costs.

The referral fee is normally payable to third parties on a monthly or quarterly basis, in arrears.

Further Information
You can ask us to give you more particulars of the remuneration (including commission) or other benefits referred to above within a reasonable period after receiving this FSG and before we provide you with the financial service to which this FSG relates, unless we agree otherwise.
Compensation Arrangements

The Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (the Act) requires licensees to have arrangements for compensating retail clients for losses they suffer as a result of a breach by the licensee or its representatives of Chapter 7 of the Act, unless an exemption applies. We are exempt from this requirement because we are an insurance company supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority and subject to prudential requirements of the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth).

Complaints and Dispute Resolution

We take the concerns of our customers very seriously and have detailed complaint handling and internal dispute resolution procedures that you can access. Please note that if we have resolved your initial complaint to your satisfaction by the end of the 5th business day after we have received it, and you have not requested that we provide you a response in writing, the following complaint handling and internal dispute resolution process does not apply.
