

Travel and Medical Assistance Overview

Accidents, illnesses, and other emergencies are a fact of life. But when you're away from home and your usual medical and information sources, even minor situations can become more intense. If you're faced with an unexpected travel problem or a medical emergency, prompt and reliable assistance can make the difference between a minor glitch and a major issue. With Chubb's Passport 360 policy, you can travel with confidence, security, and peace of mind, knowing you'll have the solutions you need, when and where you need them.
