

CHUBB®

Claims Stories

At Chubb, we understand the sense of adventure that comes with being on the water. Whether you navigate with a runabout, sailboat, or yacht, we know the value you place on protecting your boating experience. We also recognize that accidents can occur, and in those moments, our top priority is to ensure our clients are protected and made whole again. These real-life scenarios highlight the ways we turn challenging boating claims into unparalleled client satisfaction and peace of mind.

Lightning totals client's sailing yacht

Lightning struck our client's yacht while it was docked, igniting a fire that fully engulfed the vessel. Although fire crews responded quickly, the flames could not be contained in time, and the yacht suffered extensive damage. Recognizing the significance of the loss, Chubb covered the full value of the yacht, including compensation for personal property on board, and provided the client some peace of mind during a challenging time.

Disaster strikes during devastating electrical fire

Our client's mega yacht suffered an electrical malfunction, sparking a fire that spread rapidly. The intense heat and smoke damaged the vessel beyond repair, resulting in a total loss. Chubb provided full value coverage for the yacht and helped them begin to plan for a replacement vessel to resume their sailing passion.

Intense windstorm destroys yacht

Relentless wind and heavy rainfall from a storm caused significant damage to our client's yacht, which was partially inundated while in a dry dock. As water levels rose substantially higher than usual, water rapidly filled the bilge, overwhelming the bilge pump and partially submerging the yacht. Our comprehensive coverage and expertise enabled us to navigate any challenges and ensure a quick resolution for our client.

Chubb claim payment: $3.4M
