Chubb Target Market Determination

Important Information

This Target Market Determination (TMD) is required under section 994B of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and has been prepared by the product issuer Chubb Insurance Australia Limited (Chubb) AFSL 239687 ABN 23 001 642 020. The TMD is designed to assist customers, distributors and Chubb staff to understand who this product has been designed for and who it is not suitable for. The TMD identifies triggers for Chubb to review the target market and sets out the conditions and restrictions on distribution of the product described below. It also sets out the reporting obligations of Chubb's distributors. This document is not a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and is not a summary of the product features or terms of the product. This document does not take into account any person's individual objectives, financial situation or needs and is not intended to constitute personal advice. Persons interested in acquiring this product should carefully read the PDS before deciding whether to purchase this product.

This TMD is effective from the date of publication until its replacement or withdrawal.

Where a word is capitalised in this TMD and not otherwise defined, the definition of the word can be found in the policy wording/PDS.

The PDS for the product can be found here Inpatriate Medical Insurance.

2. Product Target Market

What is the Product?

This Product offers medical insurance for non-Australian Residents who are employees of the Policyholder (an Australian employer) and require cover for medical expenses while working and residing in Australia on a temporary basis.

Key covers/attributes

- ✓ Reimbursement of medical expenses incurred in Australia.
- ✓ Spouse/Partner and Dependent Children can be covered under the policy.

Key exclusions

- ✗ This Product excludes claims arising from (amongst other things):
 - piloting;
 - Professional Sport;
 - cosmetic, elective or plastic surgery;
 - intentional self-injury;
 - Pre-Existing Medical Conditions, illness or disease for which treatment, medication or advice has been received or prescribed by a Doctor or Dentist in the three (3) years prior to the Period of Insurance unless certain takeover provisions have been met or certain waiting periods have been served. (Please refer to the Policy for further details.);
 - pregnancy where the Covered Person has been covered under the Policy for less than twelve (12) calendar months from the relevant Covered Person's Effective Date of Coverage. (Please refer to the Policy for further details.);
 - radiation or radioactivity;
 - the operation of a motor vehicle when under the influence of alcohol in excess of legal limits;
 - War or Civil War;
 - assisted reproductive treatments;

- treatment or services which are covered by Medicare or by compensation under any applicable Workers' Compensation Act or transport accident laws or by any government sponsored fund, plan, or medical benefit scheme, or any other insurance policy required to be effected by or under a law.
- ✗ Claims incurred by or payable to a Covered Person whose Country of Residence is Australia.
- ✗ This Product does not provide cover for persons over the age of seventy-five (75) years.
- ✗ There is no cover under the Policy for Private Hospital Expenses which are covered under any other insurance policy, health or medical scheme or Act of Parliament or is payable by any other source. However, cover is provided for the difference between what is payable under the other insurance policy, health or medical scheme or Act of Parliament or such other source and what the Policyholder or the Covered Person would be otherwise entitled to recover under the Policy, where permissible by law.

Customers the Product was designed for

- ✓ This Product is targeted at non-Australian Residents who are employees of the Policyholder (an Australian employer), working and residing in Australia on a temporary basis and require cover for medical expenses during that time.

Classes of Customers

The class of customers for who this Product is targeted can be categorised as:

- ✓ Australian entities of all sizes who employ non-Australian Residents to work in Australia for a temporary period.

Customer's likely objectives, financial situation, and needs

Objectives	The likely objective of customers in this target market is to provide cover for medical expenses to non-Australian Resident employees (and their spouse/partner and dependent children) whilst residing in Australia for work.
Financial situation	The likely financial situation for customers in this target market is broad. Australian employers in a range of financial situations may seek to protect their employees against the losses covered by the product.
Needs	The target market includes non-Australian Resident employees assigned to work in Australia that likely need cover for routine and emergency medical expenses incurred while they are on assignment and for the purposes of meeting their visa conditions.

Customers the Product was not designed for

This Product is not suitable for:

- ✗ organisations who do not employ non-Australian residents to work for them under a temporary work visa;
- ✗ organisations seeking medical insurance for employees living in Australia who are Australian citizens or Permanent Residents of Australia;
- ✗ organisations seeking medical insurance for employees leaving Australia to work and reside in an overseas country on assignment;

- × individuals.

Why Product is consistent with the Target Market

Chubb views that the Product is consistent with the target market as the target market comprises employers with employees who are non-Australian Residents working in Australia and the Product provides an adequate level of medical insurance cover to meet the insurance requirements set by the Australian Government for temporary visa holders. It is therefore likely that the Product will meet the needs, or go towards meeting the needs, of those in the target market.

3. Conditions/Restrictions on product Distribution

Restriction/Condition	Description
Method of distribution	This Product may be distributed by Chubb's approved network of licenced insurance brokers (Distributor)
Underwriting criteria	The Distributor is required to distribute the Product in accordance with Chubb's underwriting criteria.
Promotional Material	Any promotional material which is used by the Distributor in relation to the Product must be pre-approved by Chubb and must contain an electronic link to this TMD.
Distribution in accordance with TMD	The Product must only be distributed in accordance with this TMD and the contractual arrangements in place between Chubb and the Distributors.

Explanation

Customers that obtain the Product in accordance with the distribution conditions set out above are more likely to be in the target market for this Product because a qualified insurance broker is acting on their behalf and can assess the customers objectives, financial situation and needs.

4. Product Review

Periods of review:	Mandatory periodic reviews of the TMD will occur at least every 2 years subject to intervening review triggers (see below).
---------------------------	--

Review triggers:

Review triggers are events that suggest the TMD may no longer be appropriate and may trigger a review prior to periodic review as set out above. The review triggers for this product are set out below.

1.	Any material change to the Product, including a change to the PDS.
2.	Changes to relevant laws, regulatory guidance, or industry codes.
3.	Any determination of or feedback from regulators, the Australian Financial Complaints Authority, a court or a tribunal suggesting that the target market may no longer be appropriate (including the use of Product Intervention Powers).

4.	The nature of feedback regarding the Product, including whether complaints have increased significantly from consumers or distributors.
5.	Distribution or purchasing of the Product in a manner significantly inconsistent with the TMD.

5. Reporting Obligations

Chubb's third-party distributors must report the following information to Chubb.

Distributor Reporting Obligations
Type of Report	Description	Reporting Period
Complaints	If the Distributor acts under a binding authority from Chubb, or as an Authorised Representative of Chubb, the Distributor must provide complaints data and information in accordance with the existing contractual terms as agreed to between the parties. If the Distributor acts as a broker (agent for the consumer), the Distributor must provide the following complaints data: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The number of complaints received regarding the Product during the Reporting Period and the nature and details of the complaints. Complaint is defined in the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC) Regulatory Guide RG 271.	Quarterly (10 business days after the quarter has closed) Send data to: DisputeResolution.AU@chubb.com
Significant dealings	A significant dealing in the Product which is not consistent with this TMD must be notified to ASIC. What amounts to a "significant dealing" will be determined by the circumstances of each case but generally: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> regard should be had to the proportion of customers purchasing the product who are not in the target market, the actual or potential harm to those customers, and the nature and extent of the inconsistency of distribution with the TMD. distributors should have regard to current ASIC guidelines when determining what may constitute a significant dealing. if in doubt, Distributors must report the dealing to Chubb, so that Chubb can undertake the necessary assessments. 	Within 1 business day of becoming aware of the significant dealing. Send data to: aus.incidentreporting@chubb.com

The report must include:

- date(s) of the significant dealing;
- description of the significant dealing;
- why the dealing is significant;
- how the significant dealing was identified;
- what steps, if any, have been taken in relation to persons affected by the significant dealing;
- steps which have been, or will be, taken to ensure that the significant dealing does not occur again.

6. Appropriateness

The issuer has assessed the Product's key attributes and formed the view that it is likely to be consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of consumers in the target market as described within this TMD.
