Chubb Target Market Determination

Important Information

This Target Market Determination (TMD) is required under section 994B of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and has been prepared by the product issuer Chubb Insurance Australia Limited (Chubb) AFSL 239687 ABN 23 001 642 020. The TMD is designed to assist customers, distributors and Chubb staff to understand who this product has been designed for and who it is not suitable for. The TMD identifies triggers for Chubb to review the target market and sets out the conditions and restrictions on distribution of the product described below. It also sets out the reporting obligations of Chubb's distributors. This document is not a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and is not a summary of the product features or terms of the product. This document does not take into account any person's individual objectives, financial situation or needs and is not intended to constitute personal advice. Persons interested in acquiring this product should carefully read the PDS before deciding whether to purchase this product.

This TMD is effective from the date of publication until its replacement or withdrawal.

Where a word is capitalised in this TMD and not otherwise defined, the definition of the word can be found in the policy wording/PDS.

The PDS for the product can be found here Journey Accident Insurance.

2. Product Target Market

What is the Product?

This Product provides personal accident insurance covering employees who become injured while travelling from their residence to their regular place of work.

Key covers/attributes

- ✓ Cover for all nominated employees (Covered Person) of the Policyholder.
- ✓ Cover applies to the Journey (as defined in the Policy Schedule), which is generally defined to cover employees travelling from their residence to their regular place of work. The scope of the cover may also be tailored to capture activities undertaken at lunchtimes and meal breaks.
- ✓ Lump sum payments up to a specified amount for certain bodily injuries sustained by a Covered Person such as permanent loss of fingers, toes, eye/s or limbs and accidental death.
- ✓ Weekly Benefits are payable where an employee suffers temporary total disablement or temporary partial disablement following bodily injury as defined in the policy terms.
- ✓ Cover can be tailored (to vary sums insured and types of additional benefits) to suit the needs of the employer and their employees.

Key exclusions

- ✗ This Product excludes claims arising from (amongst other things):
 - piloting;
 - Professional Sport;
 - intentional self-injury;
 - War or Civil War
 - Pre-Existing Medical Conditions, illness or disease for which treatment, medication or advice has been received or prescribed by a Doctor or Dentist in the three (3) years prior to the Period of Insurance.
- ✗ This Policy does not provide cover for any sickness, illness or disease unless that results directly from medical or surgical treatment rendered necessary by any covered injury.
- ✗ This Product does not provide cover for Covered Persons over the age of eighty-five (85) years.

- ✗ There is no cover under the Policy for any loss, damage, liability, Event, Bodily Injury or Sickness which is covered under any other insurance policy, health or medical scheme or Act of Parliament or is payable by any other source.

Customers the Product was designed for

- ✓ This Product is targeted at organisations/businesses of all sizes whose employees travel from their normal place of residence to a place of work on a regular basis.

Classes of Customers

- ✓ The class of customers for who this Product is targeted can be categorised as organisations/businesses of all sizes who want personal accident insurance for their employees while they travel to and from their regular work location (that is not their home).

Customer's likely objectives, financial situation, and needs

Objectives	The likely objectives of organisations/businesses in this target market are to provide cover for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • injury to their employees while they are travelling to and from work; • rehabilitation following an injury which they sustained travelling to and from work, to encourage the employee's return to work.
Financial situation	The likely financial situation for organisations/businesses in this target market is broad. Organisations/businesses in a range of financial situations may seek to protect their employees against the losses covered by the Product.
Needs	Customers in this target market will likely need an insurance product which can offer their employees cover for loss of earnings caused by their temporary or permanent disablement resulting from injury the employee sustained whilst travelling to or from work.

Customers the Product was not designed for

This Product is not suitable for:

- ✗ organisations who do not have employees;
- ✗ organisations seeking cover for unpaid/voluntary workers;
- ✗ organisations whose employees solely work from home;
- ✗ organisations requiring the following types of insurance for their employees:
 - workers compensation insurance;
 - private health insurance;
 - income protection insurance; and
 - life insurance;
- ✗ individuals.

Why Product is consistent with the Target Market

Chubb views that the Product is consistent with the target market as the target market comprises employers whose employees travel to a regular work location and the Product provides cover for Bodily Injury, including temporary or permanent disablement resulting from an injury sustained while travelling to or from work. It is therefore likely that the Product will meet the needs, or go towards meeting the needs, of those in the target market.

3. Conditions/Restrictions on product Distribution

Restriction/Condition	Description
Method of distribution	This Product may be distributed by Chubb's approved network of licenced insurance brokers (Distributor).
Underwriting criteria	The Distributor is required to distribute the Product in accordance with Chubb's underwriting criteria.
Promotional Material	Any promotional material which is used by the Distributor in relation to the Product must be pre-approved by Chubb and must contain an electronic link to this TMD.
Distribution in accordance with TMD	The Product must only be distributed in accordance with this TMD and the contractual arrangements in place between Chubb and the Distributors.

Explanation

Customers that obtain the Product in accordance with the distribution conditions set out above are more likely to be in the target market for this product because a qualified insurance broker is acting on their behalf and can assess the customers objectives, financial situation and needs.

4. Product Review

Periods of review:	Mandatory periodic reviews of the TMD will occur at least every 2 years subject to intervening review triggers (see below).
---------------------------	--

Review triggers:

Review triggers are events that suggest the TMD may no longer be appropriate and may trigger a review prior to periodic review as set out above. The review triggers for this product are set out below.

1.	Any material change to the Product, including a change to the PDS.
2.	Changes to relevant laws, regulatory guidance, or industry codes.
3.	Any determination of or feedback from regulators, the Australian Financial Complaints Authority, a court or a tribunal suggesting that the target market may no longer be appropriate (including the use of Product Intervention Powers).
4.	The nature of feedback regarding the Product, including whether complaints have increased significantly from consumers or distributors.

5. Distribution or purchasing of the Product in a manner significantly inconsistent with the TMD.

5. Reporting Obligations

Chubb's third-party distributors must report the following information to Chubb.

Distributor Reporting Obligations
