Chubb Life Named “Caring Company” for the 15th Consecutive Year

Hong Kong, March 21, 2017 – Chubb Life, the global life insurance division of Chubb, today announced that its life insurance branch in Hong Kong has been awarded as a “Caring Company” under the “Caring Company Scheme” for the 15th consecutive year. The award, launched by the Hong Kong Council of Social Service, acknowledges the dedication of Chubb Life in Hong Kong to the community, caring for employees and continuous support to the environment.

Having a rich history of fostering philanthropic engagement in the community, Chubb made significant effort in giving back to the community and supporting the needy. Since 2012, the company hosts the Regional Day of Service (RDS) across its Asia Pacific markets every year, an event for Chubb’s employees to devote their time to local charitable projects and serve in areas that align with the company’s priorities. In 2016, nearly 100 employees from Chubb Life in Hong Kong partnered with the People’s Food Bank of St. James’ Settlement to organize a series of volunteering activities for the underprivileged in the community.

Chubb Life in Hong Kong runs a series of initiatives to reduce light pollution, carbon emissions and strives to reduce paper usage in the office. And for three years, its employees teamed up to participate in “Green Power Hike“, one of the largest charitable hiking activities in Hong Kong, to raise funds for environmental educational programs for the public.

Employees are a valuable asset for Chubb Life, and the company is committed to providing a supportive and caring workplace to its staff. In addition to offering competitive compensation and benefits to employees, Chubb Life in Hong Kong provides diverse career development and training opportunities to nurture individual growth. Health and wellness are also key areas of focus with regards to caring for employees. The company hosted series of employee wellness and recreational activities throughout the year, including social functions like annual dinners, health talks and movie nights for staff and their families.

Ben Ng, Chief Marketing Officer of Chubb Life in Hong Kong, said, “Chubb Life is honored to be recognized as a Caring Company for the 15th consecutive year. Throughout the years, while we focus on upholding product quality and service excellence, we remain responsible to our employees, the community and the environment. Sustainability is embedded in our values and we always capitalize on our strength and resources to benefit the community and environment by working with various non-profit organizations. We will continue to reinforce a culture of philanthropy that will contribute towards a sustainable future.”

Launched in 2002, the “Caring Company Scheme” aims at cultivating good corporate citizenship and building strategic partnerships among businesses and NGOs to create a more cohesive society. Organizations are awarded the “Caring Company” designation for partnerships with the social welfare sector and demonstration of corporate social responsibility through caring for the community, employees and the environment.
