Dining

Beano's Cabin

Amazing cuisine, well-chosen wines, impeccable service, and a unique transportation option to the restaurant have made Beano's Cabin a favorite destination for years. In the winter, the only way to get up to Beano's Cabin is by an open air sleigh ride pulled by a snow cat. Live music is performed while diners enjoy a meal expertly prepared by Executive Chef Bill Greenwood.

26 Avondale Lane
Eagle, CO 81620
(970) 754-3463

SaddleRidge

Offering a delicious blend of flavors, SaddleRidge's menu is pure contemporary, based on Colorado regional cuisine and featuring steaks, succulent seafood and signature wild game dishes. The unique setting is a living museum of frontier artifacts such as Geronimo's tomahawk and General Custer's hat and canteen. SaddleRidge's spectacular international wine list was awarded the Wine Spectator Award of Excellence. Lunch and dinner is served Tuesday through Saturday during the winter season.

Zach's Cabin

Perched on the mountainside high above Bachelor Gulch, it is hard to compare Zach's to any other restaurant. The cuisine is American with a distinctly Pacific flavor. Executive Chef Tim McCaw is a Colorado native and, not surprisingly, he favors fresh Colorado produce. The setting is deliciously elegant, a fairy-tale ending to a starlit sleigh ride.
