5. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

Your duties to us

1. Duty for Consumer Insurance Policy

1.1 If this Policy is a Consumer Insurance Policy, then You must take reasonable care:

- (a) not to make a misrepresentation to Us when answering any questions we ask in the proposal form or any other disclosures made;
- (b) when renewing this Policy, not to make a misrepresentation to Us in answering any questions, or confirming or amending any matter previously disclosed to Us in relation to this Policy; and
- (c) to disclose to Us any matter, other than what we have asked in (a) and (b) above, that You know to be relevant to Our decision on whether to accept the risk or not and the rates and terms to be applied.

2. Duty for non-Consumer Insurance Policy

2.1 If this Policy is not a Consumer Insurance Policy, then You have a duty to disclose to Us any matter that:

- (a) You know to be relevant to Our decision on whether to accept the risk or not and the rates and terms to be applied; or
- (b) a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be relevant.

“Consumer Insurance Policy” means a contract of insurance entered into, varied or renewed by an individual wholly for his/her own purposes unrelated to the individual’s trade, business or profession.

- For Fire Section, Consequential Loss and All Risk section, you must ensure that your property or interest insured is covered at the appropriate amount taking into account the renovations or improvement made to your property. You may insure your property on Market Value (less wear, tear & depreciation) or Reinstatement Value (full cost of repairing without any deduction being made for wear, tear & depreciation) basis. The sum insured must be monitored and reviewed regularly representing the full value in order to avoid under insurance. Otherwise, claims settlement will be on Average Basis.
- For other sections (Burglary, Money, Plate Glass, Public Liability, Employer's Liability and Fidelity Guarantee), cover is based on the limit required.
- The excess is the amount you have to bear before we indemnify you.
- You must inform your insurance intermediary or us in writing on any material changes during the policy period so that the necessary amendments are endorsed to your policy.
- Premium is due within sixty (60) days from the inception date of the policy / endorsement / renewal. If this condition is not complied with, the policy shall be automatically cancelled and we shall be entitled to the pro-rated premium for period covered.
- If there are other policies covering the same or part of the same loss, damage or liability, the policy will only pay a share of the loss, damage or liability proportionately.
- In the event of claim, you have to notify us within 14 day on any loss or damage and deliver the claim in writing with detailed particulars and proof(s) within thirty (30) days after the loss and damage incident.

6. What are the major exclusions under this policy?

This policy does not cover certain loss or damage, such as:

- Loss / damage due to Radioactive and nuclear energy risks;
- Loss / damage cause by or arising from war, invasion, act of foreign enemy, hostilities or warlike operations (whether war be declared or not) or civil war;
- Loss / damage cause by or arising from mutiny, civil commotion assuming the proportions of or amounting to a popular rising, military rising, insurrection, rebellion, revolution, military or usurped power;
- Loss / damage cause by or arising from any act of Terrorism.
- Confiscation and destruction by order of any government or public authority.

Note: This list is non-exhaustive. Please refer to the policy contract for the full list of exclusions under this policy.

7. Can I cancel my policy?

You may cancel your policy by giving written notice to your insurance intermediary or us. Upon cancellation, you may be entitled to a refund of the premium based on the short period rates for the unexpired period of insurance subject to the minimum premium to be retained by us and subject to any claim that may have been made.

8. What do I need to do if there are changes to my contact details?

It is important that you inform your insurance intermediary or us of any change in your contact details to ensure that all correspondences reach you in a timely manner.
