

Event Liability Insurance

Planning an event is an exciting endeavour that requires precision and seamless execution to create an unforgettable experience. Yet even the most carefully managed events can encounter unforeseen challenges, making liability insurance an essential consideration for any event.

At Chubb, we understand the distinctive demands of the event industry. Our event liability insurance is designed to support a wide range of events. With the right cover in place, businesses can navigate liability exposures with greater confidence and remain focused on delivering a successful event.

Event liability claims scenarios

Severe weather disrupts outdoor concert

Strong winds at an outdoor concert caused the collapse of the stage and staging equipment, resulting in injuries to concertgoers.

Food safety incident at convention centre

An outbreak of food poisoning at a convention centre left hundreds feeling sick, with 25 people admitted to the hospital.

Guest injury during banquet

At a banquet, temporary staff accidentally spilled a hot beverage on a guest, resulting in burns and liability for medical expenses and treatment.

Crowd injury during concert

Distribution of freebies during a concert prompted a surge of fans toward the stage, leading to fainting, crush injuries, and mental anguish among attendees. The concert was also disrupted.

Stampede incident

A stampede occurred at a sports event when the police tried to take control after fans invaded the venue.

Injury to performers and audience

During a performance, stage lighting fell, seriously injuring several performers and audience members.
