

Professional Indemnity Insurance

Proposal Form For Lawyers

Important Notices to the Applicant

Statement pursuant to Section 25 (5) of the Insurance Act (Cap. 142) (or any subsequent amendments thereof) - You are to disclose in this Proposal Form fully and faithfully all facts which you know or ought to know, otherwise the policy issued hereunder may be void.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an Insurer, you have a duty to disclose to the Insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the Insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the Insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the Insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your Insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the Insurer.

It is important that all information contained in this proposal is understood by you and is correct, as you will be bound by your answers and by the information provided by you in this proposal. You should obtain advice before you sign this proposal if you do not properly understand any part of it.

Your duty of disclosure continues after the proposal has been completed up until the contract of insurance is entered into.

Non-Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled to void the contract from its beginning.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the Insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning, to retain any premium that you have paid for this contract of insurance.

Change of Risk or Circumstances

You should advise the Insurer as soon as practicable of any change to your normal business as disclosed in the proposal, such as changes in location, acquisitions and new overseas activities.

Subrogation

Where you have agreed with another person or company, who would otherwise be liable to compensate you for any loss or damage which is covered by the policy, that you will not seek to recover such loss or damage from that person, the Insurer will not cover you, to the extent permitted by law, for such loss or damage.

The Proposer understands, acknowledges and agrees that, as a result of the applicant purchasing and taking up the policy to be issued by Chubb, Chubb will pay the authorised insurance broker commission during the continuance of the policy including renewals, for arranging the said policy.

This form must be reviewed, signed and dated by a duly authorised Principal, Partner or Director. The authorised person who signs on behalf of the Proposer further confirms to Chubb that he or she is authorised to do so.

Personal Information Collection Statement

Chubb Insurance Singapore Limited (“Chubb”) is committed to protecting your personal data. Chubb collects, uses, discloses and retains your personal data in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act 2012 and our own policies and procedures. Our Personal Data Protection Policy is available upon request. Chubb collects your personal data (which may include health information) when you apply for, change or renew an insurance policy with us, or when we process a claim. We collect your personal data to assess your application for insurance, to provide you with competitive insurance products and services and administer them, and to handle any claim that may be made under a policy. If you do not provide us with your personal data, then we may not be able to provide you with insurance products or services or respond to a claim.

We may disclose the personal data we collect to third parties for and in connection with such purposes, including contractors and contracted service providers engaged by us to deliver our services or carry out certain business activities on our behalf (such as actuaries, loss adjusters, claims investigators, claims handlers, third party administrators, call centres and professional advisors, including doctors and other medical service providers), other companies within the Chubb Group, other insurers, our reinsurers, and government agencies (where we are required to by law). These third parties may be located outside of Singapore.

You consent to us using and disclosing your personal data as set out above. This consent remains valid until you alter or revoke it by providing written notice to Chubb’s Data Protection Officer (“DPO”) (contact details provided below). If you withdraw your consent, then we may not be able to provide you with insurance products or services or respond to a claim.

From time to time, we may use your personal data to send you offers or information regarding our products and services that may be of interest to you. If you do not wish to receive such information, please provide written notice to Chubb’s DPO.

If you would like to obtain a copy of Chubb’s Personal Data Protection Policy, access a copy of your personal data, correct or update your personal data, or have a complaint or want more information about how Chubb manages your personal data, please contact Chubb’s DPO at:
