Key selling points

Cover/Service	Benefit
Unlimited indemnity period	Chubb can quote for an unlimited indemnity period for your client's business interruption. Most policies will run out of time and stop paying. Chubb's cover is different as it offers no time limitation on loss of income following damage.
No warranties or basis clauses	Many competitor wordings are riddled with warranties, and basis clauses which could render cover void in the event of a claim. Chubb's package policies have no such restrictions, giving your clients peace of mind that there will be no surprises if a loss occurs.
Loss of revenue including billable hours	We can indemnify for loss of income based on the insured firm's agreed hourly rate or specific rates billed to a client by a partner or fee earning employee, plus any increased costs of working.
Full theft cover	Many of our competitors' wordings restrict theft to forcible and violent entry and exit only. Chubb will cover theft without this restriction, providing clients the security of knowing they have the broadest cover available.
Key personnel cover	Chubb will indemnify the costs incurred to mitigate the revenue impact as a result of the passing of a principal/partner/senior executive officer following physical damage to the insured's property.
No condition of average if indexation taken	If your client is under-insured and there is a loss, there is no condition of average if indexation is taken. This ensures that your client will receive the highest possible claim amount and will not be penalised for accidental under-insurance.
Electronic data cover including hacking	Chubb provides a broad range of electronic data cover including: computer breakdown, computer betterment, costs of recreating data (not just recompiling it), full business interruption cover if the data is stolen with a £100k limit and hacking cover (both insider and outsider). These covers are broader and with higher standard limits than many of our competitors.

Case studies

Unlimited indemnity period	The Chubb advantage
A large regional law practice was a tenant of a service centre located near a commercial fuel depot. An explosion at the depot caused extensive damage to the service centre and access was restricted, disrupting business operations and leaving the practice without premises to resume work.	Chubb helped the firm pay for alternative premises and to fit IT systems so that the business disruption was limited. Due to the nature of the loss the repair of the building was delayed, but with Chubb's unlimited indemnity period the client had peace of mind that they would not be penalised for exceeding the given indemnity period. It also covered the extra cost of occupying the temporary premises for as long as it took to reinstate the service centre. With a standard insurer, the original indemnity period on the policy is likely to be limited, so the costs of finding and occupying a replacement premises and costs caused by rebuilding delays and business interruption may not have been covered.

Full theft cover and loss control	The Chubb advantage
As a result of thieves entering a building during business hours, a number of laptops, Blackberry devices, employees' personal possessions and cash were stolen. Some of the IT equipment contained sensitive business information and the client was concerned about its reputation following the theft.	Following the loss, as well as paying for full theft, a Chubb risk engineer met with the insured and provided guidance on employee awareness training, access control management and systems, plus specific security for portable target items. Improvements were introduced to eliminate repetition of any further incidents. With Chubb, clients have access to advice and training from loss control experts as part of their policy at no extra cost. If there had been a revenue loss following the theft of the data, this would have also been covered under the policy.

Key personnel cover	The Chubb advantage
A partner of a niche law firm died following a fire at the firm's offices. As a highly valued member of staff and a known name in her field of expertise, she was hard to replace. With a standard policy, the costs associated with finding a replacement may not be covered.	Under Masterpackage law, if a key member of the organisation passes away following an event that has caused physical damage, Chubb will cover the costs of a search agency to identify and recruit a replacement. Chubb will also pay for the time cost of another partner reading into the deceased's on-going cases, and the cost of employing a solicitor on a temporary basis to assist with the case load, so that client service suffers minimal interruption. If the deceased featured in marketing literature and campaigns, Chubb will cover the cost of altering and reprinting this literature.
