What We Have Paid Lately

- A prominent law firm experienced a loss of valuable papers when an electrical fire damaged a third-party storage facility. Extra Expenses were incurred to recreate the valuable papers. Due to Chubb's extensive experience, the claim was resolved efficiently. Total costs exceeded $1.5 million.
- A prominent law firm is a tenant in a high-rise building and had work done to its kitchen plumbing. The plumbing work failed causing water damage to the law firm and to multiple floors below. The claims handling involved balancing multiple customers and extensive damage. Extra expense dollars were needed immediately to move undamaged property as quickly as possible. After subrogation the net incurred is $3.5 million
- A law firm employee attended required training at an offsite location. While driving back to the office, the employee experienced a seizure causing a multi-vehicle auto accident on a major highway. The accident involved severe injuries to multiple people. Chubb resolved the catastrophe claim quickly, through their seamless, integrated coverage program. Total costs were $7 million.
