
Loss Prevention Consultant Services ONBOARDING INFORMATION

Name of Insured: _____

Policy Number: _____

Chubb has partnered with The Ackerman Group, LLC, an independent international security consulting firm to provide you a guaranteed and immediate response in a time of crisis. The Ackerman Group can handle the elements of a hostage recovery, including negotiations, liaison with law enforcement, as well as protection of, and when appropriate, delivery of ransom funds.

Chubb encourages all policyholders to register with The Ackerman Group to provide connectivity at the time of need. Loss prevention services are included with the policy at no extra cost, including access to RiskNet®, an online subscription service written by in-house security experts at the Ackerman Group that provides analysis of terrorism, criminal and political stability risks around the world.

If you are an existing Chubb KR&E policyholder and have not yet registered with the Ackerman Group, complete this form, and send it to info@ackermangroup.com. You will be contacted by a member of the Ackerman Group to arrange the onboarding process.

If you are a new Chubb KR&E policyholder, you are immediately eligible to access the services of the Ackerman Group. To complete the onboarding process and gain immediate access to RiskNet, as well as arrange a briefing with The Ackerman Group, complete the following information and send it to info@ackermangroup.com.

If you do not wish to onboard with The Ackerman Group at this time, please check here and return the form to your agent or broker: ☐
