Did you know Boat and Yacht Dealers are often required to obtain Surety Bonds?

A Boat/Yacht Dealer Bond is a type of license and permit surety bond for brokers and dealers of yachts, vessels, watercrafts, ships, motorboats, and more.

Brokers and salespersons who buy, sell, solicit, rent, list, and/or negotiate the exchange of these watercrafts for compensation are often required to obtain a surety bond as a condition of licensure.

Here are a few jurisdictions that may require Boat/Yacht Dealer Bonds:

- Alabama
- California
- Maryland
- Montana
- Virginia
- Florida
- Idaho
- Missouri
- South Dakota
- Washington

Other types of License and Permit Bonds

Below are some examples of additional types of license and permit bonds that may be required of individuals or businesses:

- Title Bonds
- Motor Vehicle Dealer Bonds
- Boating Course Provider Bonds
- Title/Registration Agent Bonds
- Charter License Bonds
- Tax Bonds
