8. Self-certification for Tax Residency

If you have changed or have not yet provided information of your tax residency, please complete the following table indicating (i) the country / jurisdiction of residence (including Hong Kong) where the policyowner is a tax resident and (ii) policyowner's Taxpayer Identification Number ("TIN") for each country/jurisdiction indicated. If the policyowner is a tax resident in more than three countries/jurisdictions, please use separate Self Certification Form to supplement. To facilitate the completion of the table below, policyowner must read the Notes for Completion below carefully. Further details for the understanding of the said Notes and meaning of the terms can be found within the Inland Revenue Ordinance (Cap. 112 of the Laws of Hong Kong) ("IRO") or the website of Inland Revenue Department of Hong Kong.

If the applicant/owner is a tax resident of Hong Kong, the TIN is the Hong Kong Identity Card Number (for individual) and the Hong Kong Business Registration Number (for entity).

If the applicant/owner is a tax resident of China, the TIN is the China Identity Card Number.

If the applicant/owner is a U.S. citizen, permanent resident ("Green Card" holder), or otherwise a U.S. tax resident, the TIN is the U.S. social security number.

² If a TIN is unavailable, please provide the appropriate reason A, B or C where indicated below:

- Reason A - The country/jurisdiction where the policyowner is a tax resident does not issue TINs to its tax residents.
- Reason B - The policyowner is otherwise unable to obtain a TIN or equivalent number. Please explain why a TIN is unable to be obtained in the above table if this reason is selected.
- Reason C - No TIN is required. (Note: Only select this reason if the domestic law and authority of the relevant jurisdiction of tax residence does not require the collection and disclosure of the TIN issued by such jurisdiction)

(b) Please provide explanation(s) if the country/jurisdiction of tax residence(s) so provided in the above table is/are different from the country/jurisdiction of residential address/mailling address/workplace address as provided in this request for change form:

Notes for Completion

The Inland Revenue Ordinance (Cap. 112 of the Laws of Hong Kong) (“IRO”) requires and authorizes the Company to collect and/or report certain information about the policyowner’s tax residence and the policy information for the purpose of automatic exchange of financial account information. Section 7(a-b) and Section 8 are intended to request and collect information consistent with the law requirements in Hong Kong.

As a financial institution, the Company is not allowed to give tax advice. If policyowner has any questions on policyowner’s tax residence status and/or in answering Section 7(a-b) and Section 8, please seek advice from independent tax adviser.

Each jurisdiction has its own rules for defining tax residence, and jurisdictions have provided information on how to determine if policyowner is a tax resident in the jurisdiction. In general, policyowner will find that tax residence is the country/jurisdiction in which policyowner resides. Special circumstances may cause policyowner to be a tax resident elsewhere or a tax resident in more than one country/jurisdiction at the same time. For more information on tax residence, please consult a tax adviser or find the information at the Automatic Exchange of Information (“AEOI”) portal of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (“OECD”). Policyowner’s domestic tax authority may provide guidance regarding how to determine the tax status.

If policyowner’s tax residence is located outside Hong Kong, the Company may be legally obliged to pass on the information in this form and other required information with respect to the policyowner’s Policy to the Inland Revenue Department of Hong Kong (“IRD”) and they may exchange this information with tax authorities of another jurisdiction or jurisdictions in which the policyowner may be tax resident pursuant to intergovernmental agreements to exchange relevant account/policy information.

Kindly note that the information so provided under Section 7(a-b) and Section 8 serve as policyowner’s self-certification and will remain valid unless there is a change in circumstances relating to information, such as policyowner’s tax residence status or other mandatory field information, that makes the information incorrect or incomplete. In that case, policyowner must notify the Company and provide an updated self-certification.

If there is any discrepancy or contradictory information are found during application/due diligence process of the Company, the Company may clarify with policyowner and policyowner may be requested to provide an updated self-certification or provide explanation on the discrepancy if necessary. Failing to provide an updated self-certification or explanation to the Company, the Company may be required by law to provide the information in this Form and the other required information to IRD.
