Claims Case Studies

Accidental Damage

Insured was riding alongside the road when he fell off his bicycle. The accident resulted in damages to the bike frame, handle bars, shifters and rear derailleurs.

Chubb paid S$8,280 for the repair cost of the bicycle.

Bicycle Theft

Insured noticed his mountain bike was missing from the bicycle parking space at his place of residence. After his last use, he had secured his bike to the rack there. A police report was lodged.

Chubb paid S$8,955 for the replacement cost of the bike.

Negligence

Insured had damaged his bike after a fall, resulting in a slightly warped frame. However, he did not seek immediate repairs and continued to ride his bike until the damage was irreversible.

Chubb paid S$16,800 for the replacement cost.

Overseas Damage

Insured discovered damage at the rear fork of her bike during airport baggage check-in from Australia to Singapore. He approached his choice of repairer to get his bicycle repaired.

Chubb paid S$5,340 for the repair cost of the bicycle.

"I submitted a claim for my home insurance as my home alarm system was damaged by lightning strike. Chubb team was very professional and responsive with guiding me (on) the process and paperwork to get my claim done. Very impressed with Gayle Shepherdson who represented Chubb in dealing with my claim. Good job."
