The Secret is Out...

Are You Ready for a Claim System That Aligns with Your Needs?

Introducing ECOS – the ESIS Claim Operating System

The newest TPA claim system in the marketplace is the cornerstone of our technology ecosphere.

ECOS is built to support more efficient and effective claim management and provide:

- Deeper insights – individual claims, claim trends, overall program metrics
 - ECOS expands both standard and custom data
 - Increases complex hierarchical structure capabilities
- Enhanced program configurability
 - Embeds special account instructions
 - Supports stronger alignment with your needs
- Empowered claim management through system-driven workflows and process automation

ECOS is built to give you greater insights into your program and what's driving your TCOR
